Coast Guard couple has Tripler's first baby for 2009

Honolulu, HI — Rather than coming in as a tax exemption for 2008, Josiah Joseph Cochrane decided to hold off his birth a couple of days. That made him become the first baby to be born at Tripler Army Medical Center in 2009.

All 20 inches and seven pounds and 5 ounces of Josiah was delivered by Cpt. (Dr.) Justin Pilgrim at 5:59 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 1. The proud parents are Coast Guard Airman John Cochrane and his wife Misty Cochrane of Honolulu.

See video clip of the Cochrane family under “Tripler Webcasts” at:
